

DnD #9: Can we combine our strength?

- It's midnight and Jobin is having a bad dream – he wakes up in a start
- Teddy is meditating and Tiffany is throwing up over the side
- Jobin comes to see Dola and tells her about his dream, imploring her to go to the Foot
 - She doesn't want to because of the bad pirate omens
 - He eventually convinces her that he is ready to accept his destiny and this is the one place that
 - Panos looks over at Tiffany, who he likes, and grabs onto the hook, and Jobin goes to rub her back
- Dola calls Bobby up to take the helm for his 2nd drivers test (parking on the Foot)
- We have 6 hours until the Foot reaches us, so we are making preparations
 - Jobin tends to the Goliath baby that we've taken in and it needs some food
 - Bobby gives Jobin a granola bar to give to the Baby (BIG MOMENT FOR BOBBY!) who then has an allergic reaction
 - Dola slaps the Baby as hard as possible in the back and a hexagonal diamond comes out and it has old Brittanican writing on it
 - Teddy reads it and it says: every foot needs it's toenail
 - Dola recalls a time when she was in a bar beating up men and she remembers these 2 Goliath guys holding tiny tea cups talking about how to get on the foot – gotta latch onto the toenail of the island. There's a thing in the top of the foot that if you lasso onto it, it'll help you – it's an old steel airship that we can grapple onto it
- Bobby puts on his mittens which have a string that goes under his shirt and around to each hand and he's steering (rolled 18)
- Teddy cooks us all a meal and we exchange Fishman presents
 - Dola receives a eyepatch that lets her see 10 miles but has to be on the Tiger Moth for it to work (looks like a bad madeye moody cosplay)
 - Dola gives Bobby her first patch that gives him 1 extra hunter's mark a day
 - Bobby gives Jobin a drawing of the two of them together and tickle vouchers (which he throws in the sea) and he tacks the drawing to the helm and
 - Jobin gives Tiffany a play that Jobin wrote specifically so Tiffany can cast her dream man in it and they can kiss at the end and she goes to read it
 - Tiffany gives Teddy invisible studded leather armour that she lost somewhere in the ship
 - Teddy gave God the idea that he doesn't need more armour than he does
- We can now see the outline of the airship that's the toenail of the Foot
- Dola calls the Boys to be ready to grapple
- Jobin gives Bobby a point of bardic inspiration
- Bobby is nervous at his first time parallel parking – but we all fucking decimated our grapple roles so we got on there easily
 - The Boys become 1 with Panos's face
- We're on the Foot! Now to climb the side of the foot to get to shore
- Dola naruto runs up the side of the wall onto shore and she throws down a rope to help people
- Tiffany fails her roll and Teddy got a nat 20 in acrobatics to get her out of the ocean
- Tiffany doesn't like that Teddy touching her and she freaks out, he uses prestidigitation to dry her
- Jobin rolls religion check to make gravity not work to zipdial up the cliff – Maraphaim and Chefto Bismal are at a nails salon and CB is doing M's nails
 - Jobin wakes up in the avatar state with a gust of wind
- Bobby is halfway up the cliff and we try to pull him up

- Jobin rolls a 0 to pull Bobby up to see Chefto Bismal doing the Buffalo Bill scene in the mirror and takes 9 dmg
- We roll 51 cumulatively to get him up the Cliff and Bobby blasts off again! And lands on Jobin
- We're on the shore and Dola looks at Jobin and asks him what they brought us here for
- Jobin doesn't know what he's doing
- Tiffany uses Healing Word on Jobin to heal him for 6 health
- Jobin takes out the cardbook and he explains that he saw this place in a dream
- We hear the ground beneath us tremoring and the rock faces begins to crack and we end up down the carlac pit
- We wake up in the pitch black and there's drippy sounds
- Jobin casts Fairy Fire to light up the place where we're at
- We see an old woman with a long chin and a round glasses. She says "I've been waiting for you Jobin, for 5000 YEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAARSSS"
